Agenda Item #12 – INFORMATION ONLY – COVID-19: How can the Nevada Commission for Women help, educate, support, etc. women in the crisis and after COVID-19 has subsided?
Molly Walt, Management Analyst, requested on behalf of Commissioner Heather Engle for the Nevada Commission for Women to discuss possible Commission action to address the impact COVID-19 is having on women and girls in Nevada. Chair Jo Etta Brown suggested making this issue a goal of the Commission. Commissioner Candito suggested putting Commissioner Engle in charge of suggesting some ideas to address the issues. Chair Brown agreed with Commissioner Candito and suggested Commissioner Engle bring suggestions back to the Commission with a more detailed report. Commissioner Bender spoke stating that the Commission should not put more on Commissioner Engle’s plate because she is busy with her full-time job with Las Vegas Rescue Mission. Commissioner Bender suggested all Commissioners give suggestions to Commissioner Durette Candito. Chair Brown made the decision to have all suggestions sent to Molly Walt and Ms. Walt would communicate suggestions to Commissioners. Commissioners Fearon asked that the minutes reflect the Women’s Empowerment Workshop work group discussed the workshop would address issues for women post COVID-19.

Agenda Item #13 – INFORMATION ONLY – Commissioner Updates
Commissioner Durette Candito provided an update to the Commission stating the Women’s Empowerment Workshop in Southern Nevada working group met via Zoom and tentatively decided on a date sometime in March 2021 for the workshop. A suggested theme is “Rebuild Life” or “Encourage to Continue”. The working group is brainstorming speakers for the workshop. Commissioner Durette asked Commissioners to email her suggested speakers. Chair Brown reported the Northern Nevada working group does not have a future date or theme for a workshop in Northern Nevada at this time.

Agenda Item #14 – INFORMATION ONLY – New Business/Comments or items of discussion
