5. Approval of Minutes from the September 29, 2020 Nevada Commission for Women Meeting (Jo Etta Brown, Chair) (For Possible Action)
6. Overview of Nevada's Open Meeting Law and Chapter 233I of the Nevada Revised Statutes (Katie Armstrong, Deputy Attorney General) (Information/Discussion)
7. Discussion and Possible action to reject the possibility of being de-commissioned and repurposed as a non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization which will require our time to be spent on fundraising rather than the study and evaluation of important issues affecting women in Nevada. The Commission for Women requests the Director of Department of Administration put forth a department budget that enables the Commission to maintain its purpose and carry out the responsibilities we accepted upon our appointments.

Background information: The Nevada Commission for Women exists for the purpose of evaluating issues affecting women throughout Nevada and advising the Governor's Office and our State Legislature on the opportunities and challenges in such areas as pay parity, job advancement, work/life balance, public service, and potential discrimination due to gender. Commissioners are appointed by the Governor and this Commission has always been supported by the respective Governor in office. (Ann Silver, Commissioner) (For Possible Action)

8. Discussion and Possible action to allow Women's Research Institute of Nevada (WRIN) to add the Nevada Commission for Women's name, link to the Commission's website, Commission's logo, and pictures from events of WRIN and Nevada Commission for Women working together to WRIN's Partnership Page. (Molly Walt, Management Analyst) (For Possible Action)
