Total: Columns and rows are automatically totaled.

Additional Description: This is a text box that an employee can write in additional notification to the supervisor that may not be indicated in the Daily Notes.

Attachments: An employee can attach a document for the supervisor to open by clicking 'Browse..', locate document on your Personal Computer, then click 'Attach file'

Preapproval Audit Log

This box is located in the bottom right side of the screen. This section lets you know the dates and times you have SAVED your request, SUBMITTED your request, and had your request accepted or rejected by your supervisor.

Important Notes:

Once a preapproval request has been submitted to your supervisor for approval, a timesheet is automatically created as a draft and will indicate a "Request Pending" in the section of your timesheet that the request was submitted for (i.e. if you requested annual leave, the "Request Pending" link will show in the Leave section of the timesheet).

When the preapproval request has been approved, the approved event and daily notes will populate on the timesheet for that pay period. Once a leave request has been approved and changes need to be made, adjustments will be done on the timesheet. Any changes on the timesheet will highlight in yellow indicating that the amount is different than what was originally requested.

If the request has been rejected, the status on the NEATS Home Page under My Leave Requests will indicate Approval Rejected. The employee needs to correct the request and resubmit, or delete the request.

FMLA REASON CODES

F1 – Basic Family and Medical Leave Usage. This will indicate that the leave usage is for one of the following traditional uses of the FMLA 12-week entitlement:

- For incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- To care for the employee’s child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee’s spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee’s job.

F2 - Military Exigency. This will indicate that the leave usage is for the employee to assist a spouse, son, daughter, or parent on active duty or call to active duty status in the National Guard or Reserves in support of a contingency operation with certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include such things as attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings. This time counts toward the standard 12-week FMLA entitlement.

F3 – Care for Injured Service member. This reason code must be used in conjunction with leave taken to care for a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who has a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty on active duty that may render the service member medically unfit to perform his or her duties for which the service member is undergoing medical treatment, recuperations, or therapy; or is in outpatient status; or is on the temporary disability retired list. Employees can take up to 26 weeks of leave in a single 12-month period to care for an injured service member, but typically any FMLA leave taken for other purposes counts against this time.

Training Tasks

The Employee Development Module Training allows employees to register for, drop and evaluate, state and agency training classes through NEATS. The Training Module was made available on February 1, 2004 to all state employees and external users to register for training classes. NEATS compiles classes into a transcript format so students can print out a transcript detailing the training they have received. NEATS also allows the entry of external training classes/education to provide a more comprehensive training record for agency use. With this information, agencies can ensure that statutory supervisory and managerial training requirements are met, while utilizing the additional data for succession planning efforts.

Internal Users

'Internal Users' are State of Nevada employees who are paid through Central Payroll (CNTL) and the Public Employees Retirement System (PERS). To access NEATS go to the HR Intranet webpage: https://hr.intranet.nv.gov and click on the NEATS button, or https://neats.state.nv.us/NEATS.

External Users

'External Users' are those not listed above (University System employees, LCB, contract employees, etc.). To access the external website, visit https://nvapps.state.nv.us/NEATS.

View My Schedule

NVAPPS has two major sections of information for applicants. The first section is the Applicant Profile, which allows a person to provide information regarding their education, employment history, availability, and other items. This information is then stored and makes up the bulk of the information that will constitute the job application. The second section consists of job announcements and applications. Job announcements display all the required information about positions that are currently open. Applications provide a detailed breakdown of an applicant’s status for all jobs applied for.

NOTE: If you are a State of Nevada and also have a separate Application account you can continue to apply for jobs through your applicant account – even promotional positions. In the Applicant Profile on the Contact Information tab you can indicate you are a State employee and enter your department, division and Job Class Code (title). This will allow you to apply for promotional jobs at your agency through your applicant account. You also never lose access to this account.

Unfortunately, we don’t merge accounts. If you would like to apply for jobs through your State account you will need to manually update your Applicant Profile. Please be advised that if you leave state service your internal NEATS account will be deactivated and you be unable to access any information in that account.

TIP: NEATS and NVAPPS users who are using Internet Explorer version 7 or above have the ability to open multiple tabs within an internet session. Users are trying to perform multiple functions within those tabs. Please do NOT use multiple sessions or multiple tabs within a session when using NEATS / NVAPPS. This is causing bad data within the documents on one or both tabs.
